Tremco Associates Earn Registered Roof Observer (RRO) Designation

BEACHWOOD, Ohio (February 1, 2008) – Twelve associates of Tremco Roofing and Building Maintenance recently earned the title of Registered Roof Observer (RRO) from RCI. These individuals qualified for this designation by successfully meeting the requirements of a two-part program composed of an application process and a challenging examination. They join an elite group of more than 650 Registered Roof Observers in the U.S. and Canada, meeting the industry's highest standards in roof project observation, documentation and reporting.

The 12 new RROs from Tremco and the states in which they work are:

Tom Biller, Ohio

Kevin Conway, Massachusetts

Ryan Fennick, Pennsylvania

George Gates, New York

Mike Jones, New Jersey

Joe Lee, Florida

Tim O'Brien, Ohio

John Patterson, Pennsylvania

Kevin Reilly, Florida

Bill Schwartz, Pennsylvania

Charles Smith, North Carolina

Ray White, Texas

The RRO registration is administered by RCI from its international headquarters in Raleigh, NC. It is rapidly gaining recognition throughout North America as a critical element to building owners who retain the services of a roof quality assurance observer to ensure the project is in compliance with specifications.

RCI was founded in 1983 as 501(c) (6) non-profit organization. Its professional members offer unbiased design, repair planning, quality assurance, legal testimony and general roofing, weatherproofing and building envelope services. RCI's roof observers adhere to a strict code of ethics that offers unprejudiced professional services without affiliation with any product or manufacturer.
